Reclaimed, Fine Art, and Rounds

Asher

Crafted from weathered oak, this frame has a thin whitewashed trim inlay to give it a more modern feel. This is a beautifully balanced frame as it incorporates both the organic texture of the wood with modern lines.

Basic Barnwood

This frame features an aged brown and gray weathered oak with a simple one-paneled trim. Its simplicity combined with the organic texture of the wood adds a gorgeous earthy addition to any portrait.

Brown Magnolia

Crafted from reclaimed pine, Brown Magnolia features a brown border with a white or black distressed paint inlay, giving a mix of solid lines with a neutral aesthetic.

Haywagon

This frame presents dark brown, caramel, and cream accents with a ton of texture! Made from weathered oak this one is heavy and unique! This frame frequently features lichen and has a look similar to bark.

Haystack

Crafted from reclaimed pine, Haystack is a brown frame that gives a vintage and earthy vibe. This wood has hints of brown in different tones from light golden brown to deeper brown throughout the grain as well as rough saw marks and nail holes.

Stable

Crafted from hardwood, this oak frame has an authentically aged chippy white (100% safe latex paint) inlay that is flanked by a gray and slightly caramel outer edge. It pairs perfectly with a variety of wall tones and portraits.

Whitewashed

This reclaimed pine frame has a single-pane distressed molding, providing a modern but farmhouse feel.

Modern Gold/White

This sophisticated frame gold/white frame features a white inner edge that mimics the look of a mat flanked by a thin brass gold leaf waxed outer edge.

Ambrosia Maple (Fluted)

This minimalist frame is crafted out of Ambrosia Maple with a fluted inlay made out of four different pieces of molding to give a gorgeous dimension. It pairs wonderfully with a black or white mat for a stunning art piece!

Minimalist Oak

A gorgeous kiln-dried oak board creates a clean and simple frame for your portraits that is an absolutely lovely pairing with museum matting and deckled edge prints. These are available in white oak, gold, antique walnut, dark walnut, and ebony.

Craftsman Frame (Walnut)

Craftsman frames feature aged oak barnwood that is slightly planed in order to keep the grain and texture that only weathered oak can retain. These are an absolutely gorgeous modern and unique take on a traditional frame, available in antique walnut or dark walnut.

Craftsman Frame (Ebony)

Craftsman frames feature aged oak barnwood that is slightly planed in order to keep the grain and texture that only weathered oak can retain. In a distinctive ebony color, this frame is ideal for silhouettes and when you crave a contemporary touch.

Gratiot

Crafted from reclaimed oak, this frame has a white-washed trim inlay flanked by two grayish-tone oak strips to give the frame a higher-end artistic feel! Edges include multiple depths to give your image a feel of being framed on top of a frame. Wood tones contain gray and brown tones with weathered texture.

Silo

Crafted from oak, Silo is known for its simplicity but gorgeous texture. Its gray/brown wood tone works great with any aesthetic and gives the feel of an organic frame with an elegant look. The simplicity of tone on tone is perfect for making sure your photo is the highlight.

Hand-Hewn

This lovely hand-hewn frame features a hand-carved oak painted in creamy white paint.

Barnloft

Crafted with brown reclaimed pine, the Barnloft frame includes a unique reverse inlay design that features your photo slightly from the wall. The wood varies in brown tones with original nail holes and a textured finish.

Graphite

Strikingly dramatic, this layered matte oak frame is designed with black and white portraits in mind! It's a statement-maker piece for those who desire bold! Crafted from reclaimed oak, it features multiple lines and textures to add dimension to a modern color and shape. It's perfect when paired with a white mat to add another level of outline to your portrait.

Gold Oak

This showstopper is a play on the modern gold and white frame, but with a sophisticated gold flair. An oak molding with gold wax adds a glamorous touch to an off-white mat and delicate deckled edge cotton print with luxe gold leaf edging.

Ivory

Crafted from reclaimed oak, this whitewashed frame features multiple routed inlays with a slightly distressed white finish, balancing a rustic and delicate feel.

Gray Magnolia

Crafted from a combination of gray and light brown hemlock, Gray Magnolia features a delicate soft white painted inlay to give an airier feel to your portrait.

Modern Black

This frame has a perfect mix of strong lines with a delicate center. It features a black distressed paint that pairs dramatically with silhouettes as well as classic portraits. It is crafted from oak to retain a high-quality wood product with slight texture and grain.

Antique Hammered Brass Round

A beautiful waxed gold leaf over dark black patina lends an elegant satin look while preserving the antique character of pine wood.

Iron Ore Wood Round

Dramatic and eye-catching, this iron ore round adds an organic flair to your portraits with a beautiful Iron Ore paint flanked with light brown wood. Iron Ore's soft black finish with invisible green undertones makes this frame truly unique!

White Wood Round

Softly distressed with an off-white inner edge, this white wood round pairs perfectly with a wooden outer border to add texture to your decor and highlight the natural beauty of your portraits through its organic elements.

Black Wood Round

Breathtakingly beautiful, this black wood round features a sleek black finish that exudes sophistication and style. Its minimalist design is sure to complement any decor, whether your home is modern, traditional, or somewhere in between.

Carved Wood Round - White or Black

A 1.5" hand-carved, slightly distressed frame puts your pup's portrait front and center while a natural pine finish enhances outdoor portraits with a warm and inviting style. Carvings are uneven and embrace the texture and noticeable grain of the wood.
